

Spiritual Consciousness Activation (SCA) Session - Client Agreement and Terms of Participation

Client Name: _____

Session Date: _____

Practitioner Name: _____

1. Purpose and Nature of the Session

The Spiritual Consciousness Activation (SCA) session is designed to assist individuals in connecting with their Higher Self for the purposes of gaining insight, promoting self-healing, releasing emotional blockages, and expanding spiritual awareness. The session may involve regression techniques, exploration of past life memories, karmic healing, and communication with higher consciousness.

2. Role of the Practitioner

The Practitioner's role is to facilitate and guide the SCA process in a safe and supportive environment. Practitioners do not diagnose, treat, or prescribe for any medical, psychological, or psychiatric condition. The services provided are intended solely for personal growth, self-exploration, and spiritual development.

3. Client Acknowledgements

- I acknowledge that I am solely responsible for my personal health, emotional well-being, and any decisions made as a result of the session.
- I understand that information, insights, or messages received during the session are for personal use and reflection.
- I accept that the session is not intended to replace professional advice from licensed medical, psychological, legal, or financial professionals.

4. Confidentiality and Use of Session Information

- All personal information disclosed during the session will be kept strictly confidential.
- Video recording of the session is conducted for the purpose of providing the client a full replay of their session experience.
- The recording and any session-related information will only be shared externally with the client's express written or verbal consent.

- Without such consent, no part of the session or recording will be distributed or used for public purposes.

5. Session Recordings

- The session will be video recorded.
- A copy of the session recording will be provided to the client after the session, allowing for future review and deeper reflection.
- It is the client's responsibility to download and securely store their recording after receipt, as backup storage is not guaranteed indefinitely.

6. Payment and Scheduling

- Full payment for the session must be completed prior to the commencement of the session unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.
- Session fees are non-refundable once the session has begun.
- Clients are requested to provide at least 24 hours' notice if rescheduling is necessary.

7. No Guarantees

Each individual's experience during an SCA session is unique. While many report emotional breakthroughs, spiritual insights, or healing experiences, no specific outcomes or results are guaranteed.

8. Release of Liability

By proceeding with the session, I hereby release the Practitioner and associated entities from any and all liability, claims, or demands arising from participation in the SCA session, whether such claims are known or unknown.

9. Informed Consent

By signing this form, I confirm that:

- I have read and fully understood the information above;
- I voluntarily agree to participate in the SCA session under these terms;
- I understand that participation is voluntary and that I may withdraw from the session at any time.

Client Signature: _____

Date: _____

Practitioner Signature: _____

Date: _____